OCTOBER EDITION

HAPPY SOCKTOBER

By: Megan

This month Hattie B Stokes has declared this month "Socktober"! I was given the assignment to interview our wonderful art teacher Ms. Preuschl about Socktober. She had a lot of great things to say. Socktober was created by Kid President. It's important because even the smallest act of love can make a big difference. Our goal is 500 pairs of NEW socks. Why are we doing this? So homeless people can stay warm for winter. Socks are the least donated and most needed item of clothing. We are doing this to give the world a reason to dance this month!!

A PECULIAR INTERVIEW

By: Dilynn

Today I interviewed Ms.G about her visit with Ransom Riggs.

Ransom Riggs is the author of Ms. Peregrines Home for Peculiar Children, Hollow City, and Library of Souls.

She went to Northwestern College, in Naperville, IL on September 30, 2015.

1. Q: Who helped Ransom make his new book?
A: He made it all by himself, it took almost a year.
2. Q: Are the pictures the same in his new book?
A: They are the same, but more places and less photos of peculiar children.
3. Q: Will he make new books?
A: He is working on a super-secret book right now, but he is done with Ms. Peregrine books.
4. Q: What did you learn about his books that you didn't know?
A: A lot of his books are based on Irish myths & magic. It took 5 years to make all three books, only the first one will be a movie so far. Tim Burton is directing it.
5. Q: What is some other stuff that happened?
A: A musician called Sleeping at Last played, he was so beautiful he made me cry.

Ms.G got a swag bag with a calendar, poster, and pen.

Ransom also autographed two books for our classroom.

Stay Peculiar!
