IT'S A GRAND DAY

By: Megan

On 9/11/15 Hattie B. Stokes held Grandparents Day in honor of grandparents all around the world. Around 200 grandparents came to visit classrooms and watch the program. At 2:30 all the students went to the gymnasium to watch a Grandparents Day Program held by Mrs. Schoeff and the wonderful students. The choir sang "Make New Friends" and "Frere Jacques". We also made crafts with our Grandparents and had a snack. I think that it should be Grandparent's Day everyday, because grandparents are awesome.

THE WOOLERY WORD: ON PECULIAR CHILDREN

by: Brody

We are reading Miss Peregrines Home For Peculiar Children. The author is Ransom Riggs and yes that is his real name trust me. This story takes place in the 1940's and there's a boy named Abe Portman and he was born in Germany. The Nazis were taking over so Abe had to leave his family and go to this island in Cairnholm, Wales. There's a big old mansion and that's where the orphanage is. Past a bog in the woods. The owner is Miss Peregrine and she is in her 30's. All the children there have a magical unique power. Because of this, the parents probably didn't want them or they were in danger. Abe gets killed from the Nazis. He was killed mysteriously. Abe's grandson Jacob is the main character in the story now. Jacob is 16 years old and when he was little, his grandpa told him a bunch of stories of the peculiar children.

I think that this an interesting story and it is very peculiar and suspicious. I would recommend this book, because it uses a lot of great photographs also that are creepy and strange. It has some strong language, but our teacher censors it when she reads. You could do that for your kids too.

Ms. G is going to meet Ransom Riggs next Wednesday. She is going to share letters with him that we wrote. I think that she will find him very peculiar.
